

ISLAND POND

Dont forget the "Diamond from the Sky" Monday at the Star theatre, 15th episode, more exciting than ever. "When Love is King" will be shown next Friday an enchanting five part tale of the legendary of Wallonia.

The happy Foreman of New York, who was nearly "fortunate" enough to win a watch, last Monday unfortunately had to leave town without it. He tried to sell the watch for $6, the last offer he received was two jittneys.

Ernest C Wilcox, well known business man and member of the firm of Wilcox and Company, died at his home Wednesday, July 19, after a brief illness. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Wilcox and leaves besides his parents a wife and three children. Funeral services were held at his late home. Interment took place at Morgan. A more extended notice will be published in a future issue.

NOTICE.

I hereby give notice to the Tax Payers of the Town of Brunswick that a Tax Bill of one dollar and eighty cents ($1.80) on a dollar of the Grand List of 1916 has been placed in my hands for collection.

And so much of said tax as will be paid within ninety (90) days from date, four (4) per cent discount will be allowed.

J. M. GILKEY, Treasurer.
Brunswick, Vt., July 14, 1916.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank all who have in any way, by word or deed, helped us to bear our great burden of grief at the loss of our dear husband, father and son.

MRS. ERNEST C. WILCOX,
MR. O. P. WILCOX,
MRS. O. P. WILCOX.

An "At Home."

No more ideal spot for an afternoon lawn party could be found than the beautiful lawn at the residence of Congressman and Mrs. Porter H. Dale. Its location on the highlands makes it a delightful retreat, transporting one entirely from the heat of the village below, and the dust and confusion of the railroad, while its commanding view is unsurpassed, and an inspiration at all times of day or evening.

It was here that a goodly number of invited guests gathered on Monday afternoon to meet Mrs. Dale's mother, Mrs. A. Augusta Wood of Boston, Mass.

The reception was informal thus the more enjoyable while the guests visited with each other, greatly enjoying the instrumental music by Arthur Burbank, trombone, Mrs. Arthur Burbank, violinist, and Miss Marion Maroney, pianist. Miss Mary Strohe, niece of Mrs. Dale sang very sweetly several choice selections in a charming and unassuming manner, so characteristic of the soloist herself.

The dainty and cooling refreshments but added to the delightful sociability of the occasion. Mrs. Wood is a very magnetic woman, and Mrs. Dale and her daughters and nieces charming hostesses, all of which made the afternoon one to be remembered.

Mrs. Wood left Tuesday morning for her home in Roxbury, having spent a delightful month among these green hills of old Vermont.

The first advance advertising agents of the Community Chautauqua, Messrs. Hoffman and Pringle, were in town Monday assisting the local committee distribute advertising matter throughout the town and those adjoining. The local ticket committee has divided the village into districts and assigned to each district a person who will sell season tickets for the Chautauqua, both adult and children. Every person should buy a ticket, not only to help make the Chautauqua a success but for their own entertainment, two each day while the Chautauqua is with us for five days, no two entertainments will be alike, brings the price of each entertainment down to 15 cents each, a season ticket costing $1.50, children's tickets 75 cents.

It will not be possible to obtain admission to any single entertainment for 15 cents; it is only possible by buying a season ticket. The single admission prices will range from 35 cents to 50 cents, thus if a person can attend only four or five entertainments, it is to their benefit to purchase season tickets.

The Chautauqua is not an affair of an individual or individuals, it is a community affair and undertaking; and only through the rate of season tickets can it be made as great a success as the committee is looking forward to.

Tickets have been placed at the store of J. W. Thurston for sale for those who may not be called upon by the ticket committees through oversight. Already the ticket committee reports a good sale of season tickets.

We believe in our community, we believe in its PRESENT, in the men and women about us. We believe that there is nothing for the good of our town which working together we cannot accomplish. We believe in the Community Chautauqua not only as an entertainment but as a community good. The Chautauqua opens August 12. Buy your season tickets early, you may regret it if you should wait.

How'd You Like an Inside View of Mexico?

Andre Tridon, Mexican War Correspondent.

PERHAPS no man has brought back a more comprehensive view of actual conditions in Mexico than Andre Tridon, correspondent in Mexico for the Outlook and Independent magazines and a contributor to more than a dozen of the leading newspapers of this country.

And there is a reason for that. It is because of Tridon's peculiar temperament and his quick grasp of conditions and his understanding of the Mexican.
He was born in France of a French father from an old army family and a Spanish-Basque mother. The diplomat in Mexico has no means of getting at the bottom of the facts. It is beneath the dignity of his position for him to mix with the common rabble, and yet it is among the common "greasers" that the real truth about Mexico is current gossip on the streets of any Mexican city AFTER MIDNIGHT. Tridon went into Mexico with no race prejudice. He mingled with the common people and got the facts. He has degrees from Heidelberg, Clermont and New York universities and is the author of books in both French and English. Hear him on
